

DharmaWheels cycling organization presents our Eighth Annual Buddhist Bike Pilgrimage

September 26–27, 2009

This 137-mile, two-day event begins at Spirit Rock Meditation Center in Marin and ends at Abhayagiri Monastery in Ukiah. Along the way we visit Sae Taw Win and the City of 10,000 Buddhas. This is an inspired community event a great way to deepen one's practice. There will be an opportunity to meditate and hear Dharma talks along the route.

Both riders and volunteers are welcome. Registration opens August 20.

There is no entry fee but we ask for a donation to cover basic expenses.

website: www.DharmaWheels.org
email: Michael at BuddhistBike@yahoo.com
phone: 831.427.3591

.....
2 days • 137 miles • 60,000 breaths
.....